AIMS AND SCOPE

Brain Research Bulletin will publish original reports of new and significant information concerning all aspects of the nervous system: biochemistry, physiology, anatomy, ultrastructure, electrophysiology, neurology, pathology and behavior. Behavioral studies as such will not be published unless they are obviously pertinent and make a significant contribution to one of the other fields. Brief communications which describe a new method, technique or apparatus and results of experiments which can be reported briefly with limited figures and tables will be included. A limited number of relevant reviews and theoretical articles, results of symposia, and more comprehensive studies as monograph supplements will also be published. A special section of book reviews will be edited by Peter J. Morgane. In addition, announcements concerning neuroscience as a profession, meetings reports, and communications from scientific societies will be published. Articles will be published in English.

The accepted abbreviation for Brain Research Bulletin for bibliographic citation is Brain Res. Bull.

INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

Manuscripts should be sent to the Editor-in-Chief who will assign them to one of the editors for evaluation and a decision concerning acceptability.

STYLE OF MANUSCRIPT

General Form. (1) Manuscripts should be submitted in duplicate and should be typewritten, double spaced with wide margins on good quality paper. (2) The title page should contain: title of paper; author(s); laboratory or institution of origin with city, state, zip code, and country; complete address for mailing proofs; a running head not to exceed 50 characters including spaces between words. (3) References, footnotes, and legends for illustrations should be typed on separate sheets, double spaced. (4) Illustrations (unmounted photographs) should be identified on the reverse with figure number and author(s) name; when necessary the top should be clearly marked. (5) Each table should be typed on a separate sheet and double spaced. (6) All dimensions and measurements must be specified in the metric system. Standard nomenclature, abbreviations and symbols, as specified by Royal Society Conference of Editors. Metrication in Scientific Journals, Am. Scient. 56: 159–164, 1968, should be used throughout. (7) Italics should not be used for the purpose of emphasis.

Title. The title should not be longer than 85 characters, including spaces between words.

Papers in a series such as: "Studies on . . . I." will not be accepted.

Length of Paper. The Editors insist upon clear, concise statement of facts and conclusions. Fragmentation of material into numerous short reports is discouraged.

Abstract. Each paper submitted must be accompanied by an abstract, which does not exceed 170 words and must be suitable for use by abstracting journals. Abstracts should be prepared as follows:

> MYERS, R. D., C. MELCHIOR AND C. GISOLFI. Feeding and body temperature in the rat: diencephalic localization of changes produced by excess calcium ions. . . BRAIN RES. BULL. In the unanesthetized rat, ...

A list of from 3–12 (or more) words or short phrases suitable for indexing terms should be typed at the bottom of the abstract page accompanying the manuscript. These terms will be printed with the paper at the end of the abstract.

Drugs. Proprietary (trademarked) names should be capitalized. The chemical name should precede the trade, popular name, or abbreviation of a drug the first time it occurs.

Footnotes. Title page footnotes should be numbered consecutively. Text footnotes should not be used, the material should be incorporated into the text. Table footnotes: see Tables (b).

References. Literature cited should be numbered in brackets in text (only one reference to a number) and listed in alphabetical order on a separate sheet at the end of the manuscript. Do not recite names of authors within the text. Journal citations in the reference list should contain the following: (a) surnames and initials of all authors (surname of first author precedes initials; initials precede surnames of all co-authors); (b) title of article; (c) journal title abbreviated as listed in the 4th edition of the World List of Scientific Periodicals; (d) volume, inclusive pages, and year. Example:

1. Abrams, R. and H. T. Hammel. Hypothalamic temperature in unanesthetized albino rats during feeding and sleeping. Am. J. Physiol. 206: 641–646, 1964.

Book references should be in the following order: author, title, city of publication, publisher, year, and pages. Example:

1. Thompson, T. and C. R. Schuster. Behavioral Pharmacology. Englewood, New Jersey: Prentice-Hall, Inc., 1968, p. 297.

Citations such as "Unpublished observations," "Personal communication," "Manuscript in preparation," "To be published," should not be entered in the list of References, but may be noted in the text without serial numbers, in parentheses.

Illustrations. (a) Prepare for use in a single column width whenever possible. (b) All drawings for reduction to a given size should be drawn and lettered to the same scale. (c) All illustrations should be referred to as figures and numbered in Arabic numerals. (d) Lettering should be done in India ink or other suitable material and must be proportionate to the size of the illustrations if it is to be legible after reduction. Lettering should be sized so that its smallest elements (subscripts or superscripts) will be readable when reduced. (e) When possible all lettering should be within the framework of the illustration; likewise the key to symbols should be on the face of the chart. The following standard symbols should be used as they are easily available to the printer. ○ ● △ ▲ □ ■ + (f) Actual magnification of all photomicrographs should be given. Dimension scale should be indicated. (g) Sharply contrasting unmounted photographs of figures are required. (h) For morphological studies with illustrative material, authors should submit manuscripts in triplicate. Mounted glossy prints will be acceptable. At the time of printing, originals will be returned to the senior author.

Tables. (a) Each table should have a brief heading; explanatory matter should be in footnotes, not as part of the title. (b) Table footnotes should be indicated in the body of the table in order of their appearance with the following symbols: * † ‡ § ¶ # , etc. (c) Tables must not duplicate material in text or illustrations. (d) Vertical rules should be omitted. (e) Short or abbreviated column heads should be used. (f) Statistical measures of variation, SD, SE, etc., should be identified. (g) Analysis of Variance Tables should not be submitted but significant F's should be incorporated where appropriate within the text. The appropriate form for reporting F values is: $F(11,20) = 3.05$, $p < 0.01$.

Formulas and Equations. Structural chemical formulas, process flow-diagrams, and complicated mathematical expressions should be kept to a minimum. Usually chemical formulas and flow-diagrams should be drawn in India ink for reproduction as line cuts.

All subscripts, superscripts, Greek letters, and unusual characters must be clearly identified.

Proofs. Corrections to the proofs must be restricted to printer's errors only. Other than these, any other alterations will be charged to the author.

Anesthesia. In describing surgical procedures on animals, the type and dosage of the anesthetic agent should be specified. Curarizing agents are not anesthetics; if these were used, evidence must be provided that anesthesia of suitable grade and duration was employed.

Reprints. Each author will receive with his galley proofs a reprint order form which must be completed and returned with the proofs. Late orders cannot be filled since reprints are run at the time the Journal is printed. Senior author receives 25 reprints free.
